SHORELAND ALTERATION PERMIT APPLICATION

City of Alexandria 704 Broadway | Alexandria, MN 56308 Ph: (320) 763-6678 | Fax: (320) 763-3511 www.ci.alexandria.mn.us

	Application #		d/	Fe	e Collected
		Date App. Complet	te/	$
Α.	Owner Information
Pro	Property Owner Name (Last, First, MI) Phone
Pro	operty Owner Address			City/State/Zip
Property Owner Email Address
B. Applicant/Contractor Information
Ap	plicant/Contractor Name (Last, F	irst, MI)	Business Name	Phone
Applicant/Contractor Address				City/State/Zip
Applicant/Contractor Email Address
C.	Project Location/Description
Address of Subject Property Waterbody Name GD □RD □NE Waterbody Classification
Parcel ID Number Legal Description (attach metes & bounds narrative) acres Lot Width	feet L	_ot Depth @ Shore	feet
C.	Project Information
Proposed Start Date:/Proposed Completion Date:// Type of Work (check all that apply/attach additional sheets as necessary):
	☐ Earthmoving:	cubic yards in SIZ	feet wide x	feet long x	feet deep
	Fillc	cubic yards outside SIZ feet setback from OHW		feet long x
	☐ Rip-Rap:c	cubic yards rockf	feet shorelinefe	et landward of shore	feet above OHW
	☐ Retaining Wall:	cubic yards of material	feet wide x	feet long x	feet deep
	☐ Sand Blanket	cubic yards in SIZ	feet wide x	feet long x	feet deep
	☐ Stairs or Landing		feet wide x	feet long x	feet deep
	Other (describe)

D. Erosion Control Methods Shoreland Best management Practices (BMP's) shall be used to help protect the waterbody. Note measures that will be utilized to prevent erosion, situation or contamination to the waterbody. Sod	Does any part of the project contain any of the following (check all that apply):
Shoreland Best management Practices (BMP's) shall be used to help protect the waterbody. Note measures that will be utilized to prevent erosion, sitation or contamination to the waterbody. Sod		Steep Slope	☐ Bluff	■ Wetland	☐ Ice Ridge
Sod	D. Erosion Control Methods
Mulch Only Geotextile Seed & Mulch Seed & Seed & Mulch Seed & Seed	Shoreland Best management Practices (BMP's) shall be used to help protect the waterbody. Note measures that will be
E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: E. Site Plan & Supplemental Material Supplemental Su		Sod		Straw Bale Checks
E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: E. Site Plan & Supplemental Material Supplemental Su		Mulch Only		Geotextile
E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: • Erosion Control Plans • North Point, Scale and Address • Dimensions of Property • Project Setheak Distances from: (1) all property lines (2) right of ways (3) lake • Elevation or Contours • Dimensions of Property • Dimensions of Property • Wall heights and lengths Material types Note: In some instances a certificate of survey and engineering plans may be required. (See Handout) A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgement & Signatories • Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw belay, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. • Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls comprise straw belay, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. • Permittee shall install permanent erosion control comprise straw belay, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. • Permittee shall coase all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. • No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. • Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. • Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere writin	 	•	_
E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: E. Erosino Control Plans North Point, Scale and Address Dimensions of Property Project Setback Distances from: (1) all property lines (2) right of ways (3) lake Elevation or Contours Dimensions of Project Wall heights and lengths Material types Note: In some instances a certificate of survey and engineering plans may be required. (See Handout) A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgment & Signatories P. Acknowle	Ē	Seed Only
E. Site Plan & Supplemental Materials A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: • Erosion Control Plans • North Point, Scale and Address • Dimensions of Property • Project Setback Distances from: (1) all property lines (2) right of ways (3) lake • Elevation or Contours • Dimensions of Project • Wall heights and lengths Material types Note: In some instances a certificate of survey and engineering plans may be required. (See Handout) A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgement & Signatories • Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw muich, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. • Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site and adjacent parcels of land, public vaters, bloches, sever facilities and the like. • Permittee shall cease all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. • No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. • Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. • Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed in the permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, fed	Ē
A site plan, drawn to scale must be submitted that contains the following as a minimum: Erosion Control Plans North Point, Scale and Address Dimensions of Project Project Stack obstances from: (1) all property lines (2) right of ways (3) lake Elevation or Contours Dimensions of Project Wall heights and lengths Material types Note: In some instances a certificate of survey and engineering plans may be required. (See Handout) A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgement & Signatories Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw beloes, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw beloes, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land public waters, public roads, clitches, sever facilities and the like. Permittee shall case all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized berein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Soil material shall not be p	_
North Point, Scale and Address North Point, Scale and Address Dimensions of Property Project Setback Distances from: (1) all property lines (2) right of ways (3) lake Elevation or Contours Dimensions of Project Wall heights and lengths Material types Note: In some instances a certificate of survey and engineering plans may be required. (See Handout) A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgement & Signatories Permittee shall install permanent erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall cassa all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permittine shall permitten be a such as a subject to flooding or erosion. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized by his permit own by the permitten from having to secure other permits
Notrit Point, Scale and Address Dimensions of Property Project Setback Distances from: (1) all property lines (2) right of ways (3) lake Elevation or Contours Dimensions of Project Wall heights and lengths Material types Note: In some instances a certificate of survey and engineering plans may be required. (See Handout) A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgement & Signatories Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw multih, pollution curians, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, diches, sewer fracilities and the like. Permittee shall case all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or erosion. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over			t contains the	e following as a min	nimum:
Dimensions of Property Project Setback Distances from: (1) all property lines (2) right of ways (3) lake Elevation or Contours Dimensions of Project Wall heights and lengths Material types Note: In some instances a certificate of survey and engineering plans may be required. (See Handout) A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgement & Signatories Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent reorison control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, ditches, sever facilities and the like. Permittee shall cause all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosions control measures in order to prevent erosion of individual within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or orticols are such project. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over portions of the a	=
Project Setback Distances from: (1) all property lines (2) right of ways (3) lake Elevation or Contours Dimensions of Project Will heights and lengths Material types Note: In some instances a certificate of survey and engineering plans may be required. (See Handout) A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgement & Signatories Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, ditches, sewer facilities and the like. Permittee shall case all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit. whichever consens first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized berein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or erosion. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over portions of the authorized project. Where the work authorized by this permit inv
Dimensions of Project Wall heights and lengths Material types Note: In some instances a certificate of survey and engineering plans may be required. (See Handout) A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgement & Signatories Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public vaters, public roads, ditches, sever facilities and the like. Permittie shall cease all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever cornes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or reosion. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over protinos of the authorized project. Where the work authorized by this permit involves the draining, filling or burning of wetlands not subject to DNR jurisdiction, the permittee sha) all property l	lines (2) right of ways	s (3) lake
Note: In some instances a certificate of survey and engineering plans may be required. (See Handout) A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgement & Signatories Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control comprises straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, ditches, sewer facilities and the like. Permittee shall cease all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or erosion. The granting of this permit does not evempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over portions of the authorized project. Where the work authorized by this permit involves the draining, filling
A Photograph(s) of the site prior to start of the project shall be submitted with this application. F. Acknowledgement & Signatories Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, ditches, sewer facilities and the like. Permittee shall cease all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or reosion. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over portions of the authorized project. Where the work authorized by this permit involves the draining, filling or burning of wetlands not subject to DNR jurisdiction, the permittee shall not initiate any work under this permit until the permittee has obtained official approval from the responsible governmental unit as required by the Minnesota Wetlands
F. Acknowledgement & Signatories Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, ditches, sewer facilities and the like. Permittee shall case all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or erosion. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over portions of the authorized project. Where the work authorized by this permit involves the draining, filling or burning of wetlands not subject to DNR jurisdiction, the permittee shall not initiate any work under this permit until the permittee has obtained official approval from the responsible governmental unit as required by the Minnesota Wetlands Conservation Act of 1991. Specifications submitted shall become part of this application. Pe				aginooring plans me	ou be required (See Handout)
Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, ditches, sewer facilities and the like. Permittee shall cease all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or erosion. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over portions of the authorized project. Where the work authorized by this permit involves the draining, filling or burning of wetlands not subject to DNR jurisdiction, the permittee shall not initiate any work under this permit until the permittee has obtained official approval from the responsible governmental unit as required by the Minnesota Wetlands Conservation Act of 1991. SPECIAL PROVISIONS: Date: Permits: Permission is hereby granted to the above named application to	Note: III some instanc	es a certificate of s	survey and er	igineering pians ma	y be required. (See nandout)
Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, ditches, sewer facilities and the like. Permittee shall cases all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or erosion. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over portions of the authorized project. Where the work authorized by this permit involves the draining, filling or burning of wetlands not subject to DNR jurisdiction, the permittee shall not initiate any work under this permit until the permittee has obtained official approval from the responsible governmental unit as required by the Minnesota Wetlands Conservation Act of 1991. Specifications submitted shall become part of this application. Date: (Property Owner Must Sign)	A Photograph(s) of the site price	or to start of the pro	oject shall be	submitted with this	s application.
Permittee shall maintain temporary erosion controls at all times during construction in order to prevent erosion into any adjacent water body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, ditches, sewer facilities and the like. Permittee shall cases all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or erosion. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over portions of the authorized project. Where the work authorized by this permit involves the draining, filling or burning of wetlands not subject to DNR jurisdiction, the permittee shall not initiate any work under this permit until the permittee has obtained official approval from the responsible governmental unit as required by the Minnesota Wetlands Conservation Act of 1991. Specifications submitted shall become part of this application. Date: (Property Owner Must Sign) body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, ditches, sewer facilities and the like. Permittee shall cease all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or erosion. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over portions of the authorized project. Where the work authorized by this permit involves the draining, filling or burning of wetlands not subject to DNR jurisdiction, the permittee shall not initiate any work under this permit until the permittee has obtained official approval from the responsible governmental unit as required by the Minnesota Wetlands Conservation Act of 1991. SPECIAL PROVISIONS: Date:
herein is correct and agree to the do the work in accordance with the provision of the Alexandria Ordinances. I further agree that any plans and specifications submitted shall become part of this application. Signature: (Property Owner Must Sign) Date: (Property Owner Must Sign) Permit: Permission is hereby granted to the above named applicant to perform the work described in this application. This permit is granted upon the express condition that the person to whom it is granted and their agents shall conform in all respects to the Alexandria Ordinances. If any of the information provided by the applicant in their application is later found or determined by the City to be inaccurate, the City may revoke the permit based upon the supplying of inaccurate information.	 body or water course. Temporary erosion controls comprise straw bales, straw mulch, pollution curtains, filter cloth and the like. Permittee shall install permanent erosion control measures in order to prevent erosion of disturbed soils from the project site onto adjacent parcels of land, public waters, public roads, ditches, sewer facilities and the like. Permittee shall cease all related authorized construction activities until such time as any such problem is corrected as agreed to by the permitting authority. All permanent erosion control measures shall be installed within seven (7) days of completion of final grading or the termination date of this permit, whichever comes first. No changes in plans or specifications can be made to the work authorized herein unless such change is first approved in writing by the permitting authority. Permittee shall grant access to the site at all reasonable times so that the permitting authority or his/her agents may conduct inspections to ascertain compliance with the terms and conditions of this permit. Spoil material shall not be placed on the beds of protected waters, and, wherever possible, such material should not be placed anywhere within areas subject to flooding or erosion. The granting of this permit does not exempt the permittee from having to secure other permits from other state, federal or local units of government which may have jurisdiction over portions of the authorized project. Where the work authorized by this permit involves the draining, filling or burning of wetlands not subject to DNR jurisdiction, the permittee shall not initiate any work under this permit until the permittee has obtained official approval from the responsible governmental unit as required by the Minnesota Wetlands Conservation Act of 1991.
herein is correct and agree to the do the work in accordance with the provision of the Alexandria Ordinances. I further agree that any plans and specifications submitted shall become part of this application. Signature: (Property Owner Must Sign) Date: (Property Owner Must Sign) Permit: Permission is hereby granted to the above named applicant to perform the work described in this application. This permit is granted upon the express condition that the person to whom it is granted and their agents shall conform in all respects to the Alexandria Ordinances. If any of the information provided by the applicant in their application is later found or determined by the City to be inaccurate, the City may revoke the permit based upon the supplying of inaccurate information.
(Property Owner Must Sign) Permit: Permission is hereby granted to the above named applicant to perform the work described in this application. This permit is granted upon the express condition that the person to whom it is granted and their agents shall conform in all respects to the Alexandria Ordinances. If any of the information provided by the applicant in their application is later found or determined by the City to be inaccurate, the City may revoke the permit based upon the supplying of inaccurate information.	herein is correct and agree to the do the work in accordance with the provision of the Alexandria Ordinances. I further agree that any plans and
Permit: Permission is hereby granted to the above named applicant to perform the work described in this application. This permit is granted upon the express condition that the person to whom it is granted and their agents shall conform in all respects to the Alexandria Ordinances. If any of the information provided by the applicant in their application is later found or determined by the City to be inaccurate, the City may revoke the permit based upon the supplying of inaccurate information.		Ourner March Claus		Date:
express condition that the person to whom it is granted and their agents shall conform in all respects to the Alexandria Ordinances. If any of the information provided by the applicant in their application is later found or determined by the City to be inaccurate, the City may revoke the permit based upon the supplying of inaccurate information.	(Property	y Owner Must Sign)

(Permitting Authority)