Employment for one Fulltime Police Officer

The City of Alexandria, MN, is accepting applications for one full-time position police officer that is willing to dedicate themselves to the people and community of Alexandria, Minnesota. We believe that the Alexandria Police Department has and will continue to create partnerships within the community in order to provide police services beyond expectations. If you want to make Alexandria the place you choose, we encourage you to apply and become part of our team. The City of Alexandria believes so strongly in this vision that we are willing to compensate employees with above average wages and offer incentives to those that are serving, sacrificing and dedicating themselves as a police officer for the City of Alexandria.

Preferred Requirements:

- MN POST licensed, current and in good standing
- Experience in any service-related industry dealing with customers
- Advanced degree (in any area of study)

Minimum Requirements:

- Eligible to be licensed by February 1, 2020.
- 2 year AS or AAS degree in law enforcement
- Possess a valid MN Class D driver's license or equivalent out-of-state license
